

Telemarketing reps should not be allowed to call after 4pm or before 9am. They should be required to give you a toll free number for a callback if requested.

There should be stiff penalties for telemarketing firms that continue to call after being asked not to do so. This money should go to the plaintiff and some sort of policing agency.